From the Philadelphia Inquirer

for over a decade, and this season will practre in Truth Big Game.

a little live stalking. Now, I knew hons as well as he deliberate hunting for a non-who nourns a murdered mate was a proceeding

From the Fra.

of which the Staten Island and Long Island troops formed a part, and of the H6th Regiment, which was composed exclusively of Staten Islanders.

As a roadside resort the Patten House became one of the best known in this part of the country. When double-team pleasdriving began, through the example Commodore Vanderbilt, the Patten House was a rendezvous for the road sportsmen in that class. Every afternoon summer a score or more of double flyers

A story which was familiar to people in buy a directory for a quarter Pow?

Wall Street several years ago can be repeated with appropriateness right here. Three or four of the double-team owners had been having a brush on New Dorp lane and had then pulled up in front of the Patten House for refreshments. Com-chair, dressed like a fisherman, whom he took to be the hostler. The man not offer-

"I will, sir." was the dignified reply The Commodore's friends joining him inside the hotel, he stepped to the door and gave the man orders to have his team put up. The order was obeyed, no one inside noticing who had charge of the

Commodore's team

When the guests of the house sat down a the supper table, it so chanced that the stranger was directly opposite the Com modore. The keen eye of the millionaire modore. The seen eve of the millionaire instantly recognized the face of the manh had ordered to care for his team.

There was however, a great chnage in the appearance of the stranger. Dresse in evening costume, with a handsomely gowned woman beside him, his new of puzzled the Commodore not a little.

The Commodere was a clever conver-sationalist but he rever labored more ear-nestly to utilize this gift than on this oc-casionin his endeavor to lead out the stranger, and show him that he was cognizant of his mistake. Finally after supper, the Commodoreapproached the man and said:
"You are the gentleman whom I asked to hold my team, are you not?"

But I want to beg your pardon, said the

You did mea very kind favor did you a favor, echoed the Commodore I do not recollect it. By the way, what is The stranger told his name, and he then learned that their offices were at one time learned that their offices were at one time not very far apart. The stranger at that time was on the verge of bankruptey; but he never needed a financial friend again while Commodore Vanderbilt was living. They met in Wall Street on the following day and were ever afterward warm rfiends. One day the old Commodore stopped at the Patten House, and directly after dinner complained of being ill. He grew rapidly worse, and Dr. Ephraim Clark was summoned. A little girl who had been adopted moned. A little girl who had been adopted by James Patten, then the proprietor of the house, was the the house, was the constant attendant of the millionaire curing his stay, and by her le manner did much to alleviate his able to take his departure, he took the little s hand into his own, and stroking her hair, said: me, and I shall not forget you. When I stop here again I want to see you, and if

NEW DORP'S OLD HOTEL TO GO. compensation for her service. The or phan girl had become used to disappointments, however, and so as she saw the old Commodore pass from her sight she allowed her hope of reward to pass with him.

A week later the Commodore again appeared at the Patter House. Instantly, on allowing on alighting from his carriage, he inquired for his nurse. She found him sitting alone in that parlor, and approached him, blush-

DIRECTORIES AT ALL PRICES. They Get Cheaper With Age, but Seem Always to Bring Something.

The citp directory for the boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx has got to be a huge affair. It is usually sold at $7.50. and the publishers say that they never sell it for less. "And yet." said a book dealer, "you can stealing directories. They may light on one of the vintage of five or six years ago old if they can get it cheap, and the same thing is true of men in other lines of bust-

"It just suits our trade, said a Ninth avenue drug store man who came in here to buy an old directory. So what's the use of our paying $7.50 when a quarter or half dollar one does just as well?"

"The way a big Tammany official gets his directory is interesting. It is always up to date, and he does not pay $7.50 for it either. A man with the new directory comes around, leaves it with him and gets.

teither A man with the new directory comes around, leaves it with him and gets 5, and the old directory a year old is worth $5. So that the man that gets the old directory is a sure winner on this deal.

THE ONEIDA SACRED STONE.

Palladium of an Indian Tribe Finally Deposited in a titlea Cemetery.

Utica, June 7.—The sacred stone of the Oneida Indians has been placed upon a base or granite in a cemetery here. It was brought from Stockbridge, Madison county.

The Oneida Oneida indians has been placed upon a base or granite in a cemetery here. It was brought from Stockbridge, Madison county. brought from Stockbridge, Madison county
The Oneidas believed that this stone followed them without the aid of human hands

| Head Y C annual regatta. Norwalk Y C open regatta. Norwalk Y C open regatta. Seawannaka Corinthian Y. C. open regatta. from one to another of their homes for many butterday, 6 Seawanhaka Corinthian V. C. fall ages and finally settled in a butternut grove | regation in which their chief counsels were held on one of the Stockbridge hills. When they sold their lands in this State When they sold their lands in this State and broke up heir tribal relations in 1846, and most of hem removed to Green Bay. Wis., they were loath to leave the sacred stone be hind. Through the efforts of the late Dr. M. M. Bagg and others, permission to remove the stone to this city was secured upon the premise that it shoulh not be destroyed, but should be kept for all time as a monument to the tribe.

The stone was accordingly brought to Stockbridge, accompanied by a delegation of Oncida Indians. It was deposited in of Oncida Indians. It was deposited in Forest Hill Cemetery in 1849 and until a few days ago rested on the ground It has now been elevated upon a granite base upon which the following inscription appeare:

Sacred Stone of the Onella Indians. This stone was the national alter of the Oneida Indians, around which they gathered from year to year to celebrate solumn religious rites and to worship the Great Spirit. They were known as The Tribe of the 1pright Stone. This valuable historical relie was brought here from Stockbridge. Madison county, N. Y., in 1849.

Answers to Fighting Queries.

M. J. Carroll, Winsted, Conn.—The bet is a draw and the money should be divided. New York Reader Address Billy Madden, care of Hotel Ceell, London, England. atop here again I want to see you, and if you come near my home come and see me.

The girl was pleased at these words, though disappointed at not receiving some the world. 2 Jim Jeffiles. The league finishes its season with nearly soo in the bank and no outstanding illiabities.

MANY RACES FOR YACHTSMEN.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS TO BE SAILED THIS SEASON.

Contesis Between Hevertey, Sewanhaka and construction of the hotel. The structure was completed in the following autumn.

The Patten House became very popular at the beginning of its career. It was adopted as the headquarters of Gen. Van Buren, commanding the State Militia in this military district and also of the brigade of which the Staten Island and Long Island and Island Island Island Island Island Island Island Isl

t open regaits, nette and Manhaset last cuts in arrate, and of blowing a few lethal holes have that a manual regalta in it with his Mauser. As we came nearer A New York Y C cruise, rendezvous from the scene of his bereavement for rest and sleep. But we found, in the jungle's depths, the footway he had trod in a sentry New York Y C cruise, rin in Vine-Seawanliska Out too, Montrold, New York Y. C. cruise, rin to Kristoniaen head, a seawagkaba cup race, Montreat; read to a seawagkaba cup race, Montreat; read thortor Y. C annual regatia. North-c annual regatia. Seawanhaka Cerinthian in the race for Centre Island cup rates. B Horseshor Harbor Y. C annual a Harthord Y. C. open regatia. Seawanhaka delay Y. C. seconth race for the Centre Island culay. L. seconth race for the Centre Island culay. 23 Inguient Y. C. New Rochelle white property of the control of the annual annual regards of the Centre Island atthictor Y C annual regards at the Centre Island lat. 23 linguished Y C. New Rochelle egatts hibbseport Y C annual regards and Flod Club, Gravesend Bay classes, is a Cornelism Y C. knocksbout races this of rews.

29 Indian Harbor Y

Taursday, 11 New York Y. C. fall regatta off and) Hoss.

Saturday, 13. Atlantic Y C fail regatta. Larchson! Y C race for Larchmont cup and for classes.

I, K and I.

Saturday, 29. Manhasset Bay Y C fail regatta; cawanitaka Corinthian Y C club races. Yacht asing Association of Graveschi Bay annual re-Saturday, 27 Riverside Y C fall regatta; Man-basset bay Y. C. lifth race, club series.

Pratt Institute Leaves Long Island Inter-

A special session of the Long Island Inter-Scholastic Athletic League was held yester-day at the Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn. Clifford M Bishop of Adelphi Academy pre-seted. The threatened resignation of the hig Cathedral School of St. Paul's of Carden City did not materialize, but there was al-most as big a bomb thrown into the meeting when Pratt Institute resigned. The resignamost as big a bomb thrown into the meeting when Pratt Institute resigned. The resignation was promptly accepted and the delegates wided out of the league session.

The protest of W. H. O'Donoghue of the Erasmus Hall High School against the referee's ruling at the recent Long Island Interscholastic League games, whereby he was disquasified for fouring and spiking an opponent, was not allowed, and the race stands as adjudicated by the officials. The following officers were closen:

President, Haroid C. McNully, Erasmus Hall High School, Vice President, Robert A. Gilmore, Adelphi Academy, Treasurer, Charles A. Werner, Payl technic Preparators School, Secretary, W. H. Hart, Brooklyn Boys' fligh School Protest Committee, J. E. Alford, Frasmus Hall High School, chairman, W. N. Garsar, Brooklyn Latin School, School chairman, W. S. Garsar, Brooklyn Latin School; H. J. Schoonictahu, Brooklyn Boys, High School; W. J. Hall, Cathedral School of St. Paul's, Chailes A. Werner, Polytechnic Preparatory School, and Robert A. Gilmore, Adelphi Academy.

TIGERS DEFEAT YALE RIVALS. FLUSH RAFTSMEN OF OLD. The Husiness on the Susquehanna Con

WIN SECOND BALL GAME OF SE-RIES BY SCORE OF S TO 3. The business of rafting on the Susque-

New Haven Collegians Make Things Lively

House made a possibility.

The ground selected was directly at the head of New Dorp lane on the Richmond road. Arrangements having been completed, ground was broken in the atturn of 1886, and the carpenters worked as best they could during the hard winter that followed, preparing the frame works and other material.

Lawrence Hillyer was the leading builder on Staten Island. A that time. He was white a branch of a Roman Catholic office of the was always and the carpenters worked as best they could during the hard winter that followed, preparing the frame work and other material.

Lawrence Hillyer was the leading builder on Staten Island at that time. He was a Whig and represented Richmond county in the State Assembly in 1887. In April of that time. He was a Whig and represented Richmond county in the State Assembly in 1887. In April of that year, white the Legislature was in gession he came home to superinted the contractors on the real season was completed in the following autumn. The Patten House became very popular at the head of season was continued in a season of the came home to superinted the contractors on the real side of the contractors on the real side of the season was completed in the following autumn. The Patten House became very popular at the head of the came home to superinted the contractors on the real side of the side of the contractors on the real side of the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted as the headquarters of time the side of the season was adopted a

SLOOPS CLASS L START, 3.03. Vacht and ourse:

Name and ourse:

Ham & H should be demonstrative that the most foothearly of professional hutters would not dare the confider. But in the near neighborhood of the spot where Mine Lindows had been killed there was the flott, with an earthquake vince, whose runblines fast-mate killed there was the flott, with an earthquake vince, whose runblines fast-mate killed there was the flott, with an earthquake vince, whose runblines fast-mated the flery spirit of van Aard!

"I am going, he said

I could not let him go alone, for we had fought too offen sale by sale we started of, my re-silese contrade isynte out, in caime est confidence, the artises plan he had of walking up to that turnsiduous hell of strain incorrance, and of blowing a few ichial holes in it with his Manner as weary with imprevators exceed the mindth, had goine away from the one of his bereavement for rest from the spine of his bereavement for rest spine, but whose who look in the wind to spine and spine. S. Haven being the world in a sentry path of twenty feet, he had staked back and forth for twelve long hours, cailing aloud for venerance.

Kristmansen, who looked upon Van Aard Karli. S. Haven and the world use the morthing for a peace-ful springlosk hunt, and nook his Kaffir bot alone world. The world world had not not be substituted and forth for twelve long hours, cailing aloud for venerance.

Kristmansen, who looked upon Van Aard Kaffir bot going the world in the direction opposite to the farm. And the world was the morthing for a peace-ful springlosk hunt, and nook his Kaffir bot alone world. The morthing of the proposite to the spinose of the spinose if handly peak of the called his contract of the contract of the proposite of the contract of the contract

Yacht and Owner B. M. A. Elapsed

Yacht and Owner B. M. A. H. M. B. M. S.
Tito H. G. Ladd 5 50 10 2 30 10
Papones H. H. C. Macey 6 00 21 2 40 21

of the New York A. C. the Charles H. Sherrill

many that was sublime.

Kristmansen knew that death stood waiting for him in the clearing beyond. The chances were all against a fatal first shot. The wounded inon would tear him into shreds of manyled flesh before he could have time to fty. Step by step, his very breath part inp, he made the slow retreat. The Kaffir, fameying all his masier need to was fire a single shot, accompanied him with an expression of disdam. For ten good minutes, kristmansen paced backward, and then came swiftly to the camp again upon the chance of making up a party whose numbers would mean safety in a concerted street, the hand as forth.

I was in Pretoria a little later and saw a sight that told me how wise Kristmansen had been. The oldest lion hunter of the Transvaal shook me by the hand and used his left hand for the greeting. The other half went into a lion's may a few months earlier. He was hunting springared the oldy Roger was to have started, but sho ran aground just before the signal when the same of the ride was answered by the stailing roar of a wounded him. He leaped for the smoke, coming on in flying hounds, while my old friend fumbled wildly with his powder horn. He was tounded him. He leaped for the smoke, coming on in flying hounds, while my old friend fumbled wildly with his powder horn. He was tous the bounds, while my old friend fumbled wildly with his powder horn. He was tous the touch of his tremendous Jaws, and an arm was stripped to the bone, had not more than wounded him. He leaped for the smoke, coming on in flying hounds, while my old friend fumbled wildly with his powder horn. He was tous old the form the sample will had no more than wounded him. He leaped for the smoke, coming on in flying hounds, while my old friend fumbled wildly with his powder horn. He was tous old the form the smoke, coming on in the first of the series for the smoke, coming on in the first of the series for the Smoke coming on in the first of the series for the smoke, coming on in the first of the series for the smoke, coming on in th bullet through his heart

The chances are in favor of the lion when accident brings him and man together.

Automobile Track Races Planned.

The Long Island Automobile Club is planning a pace meet to be held on the Brighton Beach running track on Aug. 23.

Laurel B. C.—D. J. Schuman, P. O. box 6, Station 2, Jersey City.

Lenox B. C.—R. G. Kemmet, 537 East Slaty-ninth street.

Williams A. A.—R. D. Williams, Ninety eighth attret and Amsterdam avenue.

O. N. T.—Samuel Lam. East Newark, N. J.

Spooner F. C.—P. Musica, 25 Water street.

Spaidings—Alexander Schaefer, Park avenue and Principles of the Carks—Al Clark, 126th street and Amsterdam avenue.

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN.

Novement to Stop Vallaburg Sunday Races I. B. Potter to the Fore. The church-going people of Newark are organizing a determined opposition to Sun-day hieyele races on the board track at Vails and there may be developments at the track to-day. The last time an effort was made to stop the races the Sheriffs sent to the track.

COLUMN COLUMN

On a request of Capt Charles H. Sherrill of the New York A. C. the Championship

Committee of the A A T has decided the

At Wente, the Buffalo cyclist puglist, is in no wise nettled over his recent defeat at the hand of Joe Choynski. Wenig wants to box either Choyn ski, Carter of Marvin Hart within two weeks.

A Header, New York -He began boxing in 1807 and has done well.

This Kearns of Boston and Patsy Sweeney of Ireland have been matched to box twenty rounds before the Queens City A. C. of Manchester. The mill will be held within two weeks.

HILLS IT TERS.

For other Advertisements under this Classification see Eighth Page, First Section.

DELIGHTFUL SUMMER CRUISE TO HALIFAX, N. S., SYDNEY, C. B.,

AND ST. JOHN'S, N. F.

Fine Passenger Steamers "ROSALIND" and "SILVIA"

Sail from Pier No. 40, N. R., foot West Houston St., on following dates: June 18, 25, July 5, July 12, 23, 39, Aug. 9, etc.
Apply for rates, and further information BOWRING & CO., Agents, 17 STATE ST., NEW YORK.

C. H. DITSON & CO., that fact that he is the carcu-as-enter-can champion I won that title years ago and MARRIED. GREEN LAYNG On Thursday June 5 at Sea-ganurst, Mount Kiven N 5 b, the Rev. Henry Chamberlaine, Agnes Wells, daughter of James D. Layng, to Asabel Green.

DIED.

ARMPPECET As Fast Clarge, N. J. on June filmess, William Pre-nort History on of Gardner II and Annette History Relatives and friends are invited to attend the island. The proximine will be too and 220-yard championship and the 100-yard novice will be contested and on Ang 23 mere will be the quarter-suite and naite championships and a 220-yard handrons and a 110-yard novice race open. On Oct. 4 the events will be a 230-yard championship, half-mile han-dicap. 100-yard handrons and 100-yard

CENTRAL AUCTION CO.

M. SHEEHAN, Auctioners, 152 and 154 Canal M.
Jane 2-48 H. McArchan, 1.20 oroning. 124 conds, Jewelry, etc., Nos. 1 to 14,280, in their and ld pledges held over Id pledges held over June 19—18; R. Simisson & Co. 143 Meet 42d st.
Mamonds, lewerry, etc., piedges No. 1 to 1980,
1 1991, and old goods held over June 11 By H. Bucckweede, 473 Grand st.
June 13, Watches, etc., pledged to June, 1981.

PERSONAL NOTICES.

MORPHINE, OPT M, LAUDANI M, COLAINE Balat, myself cured, will a form you of nermine, permanent lanne cure. Mrs. BALDWIN, 1901.

GROCERY - A first class store in across 1 to for alle, count stock or lump sum. Address (allocates) ox 180 Sun other.

REWARD for return of leather hand bag contained books, left on 5th av clevated at 836 st. May 31, 1962.

J. M. B., room 526, 136 Liberty 64.

Greatest Fino Values in America. Wilson . . . $155 Harmony . $175 Richardson, $195 Planes Deily e ed on Payment of $5.00. We charge no interest for time taken in making payments. exchange your old plano for a new one on our very liberal terms of $1 a week.
We present with every planoselected a beautiful stool to match

100

SOMET CAS

H

HERALI

Mic

PRICES

MURI

ATH Y

WEBER PIANOS

and a new style rubber cover.

PLANOFORTES, ORGANS, AC.

Pianos $1 week

brought | In addition to our usual assortment of new Weber Pianos, we have a number of second hand pianos taken in exchange, including Weber, Steinway, Decker Brothers, and others. These instruments are just the thing be closed out at Low Prices. Weber Warerooms, for the country or seashore and will 5th Ave., cor. 16th St., New York. Pianos to Rent for the Country.

Small Unrights Leading Makers for Som Cottages. Also a number of slightly used BRIGGS PIANOS fully warranted, at reduced prices, cash or

HI SINESS SOTICES. "To Breathe the Enlivining Spirit, and

HISCOX At Easton, Pa. Jone 6, after a prolonged at convenience of family LIPPITT Am Friday, June 6, at her reside

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

PAWNBRCKERS SALES.

YOUR FORICAT DILD from crame want Lieflyon comes the send done a date. Prof. 1 MV its drawer for the

TERRA

THIS AF